Synopsis

Dr. Tsavnande lived a short but impactful life creating a niche for herself. She had a profound humanity and this, she demonstrated through visits to orphanages, caring and buying drugs for her patients. Her ultimate dream was to assist the poor and improve their conditions of living.

These dreams cannot be allowed to die with her death. Hence, the emergence of Dr. Patience Selumun Tsavnande Foundation.

Major Objectives of the Foundation:

- To reduce the menace of the girl-child school drop outs, rape, child abuse and other social and economic factors affecting the girl-child.
- To encourage the study of Medicine and fund medical training of the indigent girl-child.
- To carry-out practical and advocacy medical interventions, outreaches, health and safety campaigns aimed at reducing accidents.
